AAWR American Association for Women in Radiology

Nomination Criteria for AAWR Fellowship

Years of Cumulative Membership

Includes in-training membership. All candidates must demonstrate a sustained record of attendance at or participation in AAWR-sponsored activities, conferences, events, functions, or meetings.

If membership years are not continuous, applicants should report prior dues-paying membership years and dates to the best of their ability.

Applicants need to be qualified in ONLY ONE BOX. The bullet points should be used as examples of acceptable criteria. It is not expected that applicants meet each bullet in every area of leadership.

Fellows are expected to maintain appropriate membership levels in the AAWR to maintain the title FAAWR.

10–14 Years At least 10 years dues-paying membership	≥ 15 Years At least 15 years dues-paying membership
☐ Service to AAWR and/or Organized Radiology/Medicine • Prominent leadership role(s) in AAWR or in national/international radiology or medical organization(s). • Award(s) from national/international medical organization(s). • Executive-level leadership role(s) in a university, medical school, group practice, or health care system. • Executive-level leadership role in a private practice group, hospital system, or volunteer organization. • Other: _____	☐ Service to AAWR and/or Organized Radiology/Medicine • Significant participation on AAWR committee(s). • Office(s) or leadership role(s) in local/state/regional radiology or medical organization(s). • Key leadership role(s) in a university, medical school, group practice, hospital, or health care system. • Participation in community-based medical/health care organization(s) or sustained charitable care of patients. • Quality, safety, accreditation, peer review, process improvement, medical director, RSO, or MR Safety Officer responsibilities. • Other: _____
☐ Outstanding Teaching of Radiology • National/international reputation as faculty, invited lecturer, visiting professor, or recognized teacher. • National/international teaching recognition or teaching award(s). • Chair/Vice Chair of an academic or hospital-system Radiology/Radiation Oncology department. • Other: _____	☐ Outstanding Teaching of Radiology • Local/state/regional reputation as faculty, invited lecturer, visiting professor, or recognized teacher. • Local/state/regional teaching recognition or teaching award(s). • Division Chief/Section Head, residency/fellowship director, course director, advisor, or mentor. • Advocacy for women in radiology or participation in community-based medical outreach. • Other: _____
☐ Scientific, Clinical Research, and Literature Contributions • National/international reputation as researcher, investigator, or author. • Extraordinary/substantive record of original contributions to radiology, radiation oncology, nuclear medicine, or medical physics. • Lead or major investigator on national/international collaborative trials or leadership role in a national/international IRB. • Other: _____	☐ Scientific, Clinical Research, and Literature Contributions • Local/state/regional reputation as researcher, investigator, or author. • Notable record of significant original contributions to radiology, radiation oncology, nuclear medicine, or medical physics. • Lead or major investigator on local/state/regional collaborative trials or leadership role in a local/state/regional IRB. • Other: _____